

Preparing for the future

Having a post-school qualification will open up more job opportunities for you in the future

A traineeship or an apprenticeship can give you great skills for life

VET study can lead to a stable and rewarding career

University can put you on a pathway to success

Start preparing for the future at yourcareer.gov.au

Source: National Skills Commission Research; Australian Jobs 2021

